

Daniel Berger, Ph.D.

Professor of Pulpit Communication and Expository Preaching
Trinity College of the Bible and Theological Seminary

ACADEMIC CREDENTIALS

Ph.D. (Rhetoric) - University of Oregon; 1990

M.Div. (Homiletics and Old Testament) - North American Baptist Seminary; 1981

B. S. (Pastoral Ministries) - Western Baptist College (now Corban College); 1978

CERTIFICATES AND LICENSES

Certificate in Journalism - Christian Writer's Institute

Ordination - Salt Creek Baptist Church, Dallas, OR; 1981

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Adjunct Professor, Pulpit Communication and Expository Preaching - Trinity College of the Bible and Theological Seminary; 1994-Present

Visiting Assistant Professor - Multnomah Bible College; 1996-1997

Associate Professor, Chair, Department of Speech - Northwest Christian College; 1997-2004

Director of Assessment, Professor, and Chair of the Department of Communication - Simpson University; 2004-Present

PROFESSIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Speaking the Truth in Love: Christian Public Rhetoric, 2006, Eugene, OR: Wipf and Stock.

"Jesus and Aristotle." Presentation to Religious Communication Association, San Antonio, TX; 2006