

Thomas W. Cahill, M.A.

Adjunct Professor of Christian Education/Discipleship
Trinity College of the Bible and Theological Seminary

ACADEMIC CREDENTIALS

Presently enrolled at Trinity College of the Bible and Theological Seminary, Ph.D. in Leadership
M.A. (World Mission and Evangelism) – Asbury Theological Seminary; 1996
B.A. (Christian Education) – Eastern Nazarene College; 1989

CERTIFICATES AND LICENSES

Ordination – Church of the Nazarene, Kansas City, MO; 1997

DISTANCE LEARNING TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE

Adjunct Professor of Biblical Studies and Theology – Trinity College of the Bible and Theological Seminary; 2002-Present
Adjunct Professor of Practical Ministry – Nazarene Bible College; 2004-Present
Adjunct Professor of Religious Studies – Indiana Wesleyan University; 2007
Online Facilitator Orientation – Indiana Wesleyan University
Introduction to Online Learning – Nazarene Bible College
Advance Online Learning – Nazarene Bible College

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Pastor with the Church of the Nazarene; 1995-Present
Missionary intern and teacher - Caribbean Nazarene Theological College, Cantaro, Republic of Trinidad and Tobago; 2000-2002

Executive Director - Nazarene Indiana Bible College, Albuquerque, NM; 2003-2005
Adjunct Professor of Religious Studies - Indiana Wesleyan University; 2006-Present
Adjunct Professor - Oakland City University; 2006-Present
Chaplain for the Adult and Graduate Studies Division - Indiana Wesleyan University

PROFESSIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Wrote and recorded curriculum for Trinity College of the Bible and Theological Seminary

MEMBERSHIPS AND AFFILIATIONS

Church Membership – Vanderbilt Church of the Nazarene, PA

TEACHING AND RESEARCH INTERESTS

Cultural studies; evangelism; missions; theology; religion; discipleship